La Manga Club's Five Millionth Golfer Revealed

Madrid's Emilio de Carvajal secures his place in history and free golf for life!

A Spanish golf enthusiast has made history after becoming the five millionth golfer to take to the green at La Manga Club, Spain's leading luxury sport resort.

Emilio de Carvajal from Madrid will now be able to take advantage of free golf for life on La Manga Club's renowned championship golf courses.

Emilio, who has played golf at La Manga Club twice a year for the past ten years, was overwhelmed when he discovered he was lucky golfer number five million, he said: "The golf courses at La Manga Club are fantastic and I am a big fan of the resort. I can't believe that I am the five millionth person to book a round of golf and will now get to take advantage of this fantastic prize. There will be no keeping me away from the green!"

With golfing heritage dating back to 1972, La Manga Club's three championship golf courses have been host to a wide range of sporting legends including Jose María Olazábal, Seve Ballesteros and Colin Montgomery and a number of leading tournaments such as the Spanish Open, Spanish PGA Championships, BMW Golf Cup International. It is also the winter training base for the German PGA.

With three 18-hole championship golf courses, year round sunny climate and high-tech practice facilities, La Manga Club is the ideal winter holiday destination for golfers of all levels – whether you're a seasoned pro or a budding amateur wanting to dedicate some serious time to brushing up your skills.

The resort is also famed for its leading Golf Academies which are ideal for golfers of all ages and abilities. With expert tuition from experienced professionals, superb practice facilities and high-tech swing analysis, golfers are guaranteed to leave playing like a pro.

About La Manga Club

As a result of 37 years of continued investment, innovation and commitment to excellence, which have ensured that it has remained at the forefront of the sector, La Manga Club is widely recognised as Spain's flagship resort and as one of the finest in the world.

Evidence of this is provided by its numerous World Travel Award nominations and prizes, such as the World's Leading Sports Resort (top 5, 2006 and 2007), Spain's Leading Golf Resort (winner, 2006), Europe's Leading Golf Resort (winner, 2001, 2003 and 2005), and Europe's Leading Conference Hotel (winner, 2003). In addition, the hotel obtained the prestigious Q for Quality certification in 2002.

La Manga Club is a spectacular resort located in the Murcia region of south-east Spain. Set out over an area of some 560 hectares (approx. 1,400 acres), it offers visitors a five-star hotel, luxury vacation apartments and 450 hectares of sports facilities, highlights of which include its three 18-hole golf courses, 28 tennis courts and its eight-pitch professional football centre, which also offers facilities for cricket, rugby and Gaelic football.

The resort is also home to innumerable leisure facilities, such as the 2000m<sup>2</sup> Spa La Manga Club with its 13 luxurious treatment rooms, comprehensive fitness centre and 25m indoor swimming pool; meeting, banqueting and incentive facilities, and more than 20 restaurants and bars.

La Manga Club is located in a unique setting amid the rolling hills that separate the crystalline Mediterranean from the warm waters of the Mar Menor Sea in Murcia, southern Spain. Lying to the south of the Costa Blanca, this region is known as the Costa Cálida, or 'warm coast', thanks to its mild, year-round Mediterranean climate.
