La Manga Club Shortlisted for Luxury Travel Award

Resort secures place amongst the world's elite in the World Luxury Hotel Award shortlist

La Manga Club, Europe's leading luxury sport and leisure resort, has been shortlisted in the Luxury Golf Resort category of the World Luxury Hotel Awards.

Now in their third year, the awards celebrate the world's finest hotels and resorts. Award winners set the benchmark for luxury hotels in achieving recognition for their world class facilities and service excellence.

Shortlisted in the Luxury Golf Resort category, Spain's La Manga Club has offered first class golfing facilities and five-star accommodation for the last 20 years. In 2007, Q-Plus, an organisation founded by the National Association of Greenkeepers of Spain, awarded La Manga Club the first certificate in Spain for the quality of its three, 18-hole championship courses.

La Manga Club's three championship golf courses have been host to a wide range of sporting legends including Jose María Olazábal, Seve Ballesteros and Colin Montgomerly and a number of leading tournaments such as the Spanish Open, Spanish PGA Championships, BMW Golf Cup International. It is also the winter training base for the German PGA.

With three 18-hole championship golf courses, year round sunny climate and high-tech practice facilities, the resort is the ideal winter holiday destination for golfers of all levels.

The resort is also famed for its leading golf tuition and academies which are ideal for golfers of all ages and abilities.

Set over 1,400 acres of picturesque Spanish landscape, La Manga Club is home to a five-star hotel, four-star apartments and a luxury spa. The resort also hosts over 20 bars and restaurants.

About La Manga Club

As a result of 37 years of continued investment, innovation and commitment to excellence, which have ensured that it has remained at the forefront of the sector, La Manga Club is widely recognised as Spain's flagship resort and as one of the finest in the world.

Evidence of this is provided by its numerous World Travel Award nominations and prizes, such as the World's Leading Sports Resort (top 5, 2006 and 2007), Spain's Leading Golf Resort (winner, 2006), Europe's Leading Golf Resort (winner, 2001, 2003 and 2005), and Europe's Leading Conference Hotel (winner, 2003). In addition, the hotel obtained the prestigious Q for Quality certification in 2002.

La Manga Club is a spectacular resort located in the Murcia region of south-east Spain. Set out over an area of some 560 hectares (approx. 1,400 acres), it offers visitors a five-star hotel, luxury vacation apartments and 450 hectares of sports facilities, highlights of which include its three 18-hole golf courses, 28 tennis courts and its eight-pitch professional football centre, which also offers facilities for cricket, rugby and Gaelic football.

The resort is also home to innumerable leisure facilities, such as the 2000m² Spa La Manga Club with its 13 luxurious treatment rooms, comprehensive fitness centre and 25m indoor swimming pool; meeting, banqueting and incentive facilities, and more than 20 restaurants and bars.

La Manga Club is located in a unique setting amid the rolling hills that separate the crystalline Mediterranean from the warm waters of the Mar Menor Sea in Murcia, southern Spain. Lying to the south of the Costa Blanca, this region is known as the Costa Cálida, or 'warm coast', thanks to its mild, year-round Mediterranean climate.
